

SUMMARY OF ST. LOUIS MARKETS.

At the beginning of yesterday's session there was every indication that the range would be upward and that the good buying which developed late Monday would continue to be effective for the further appreciation of values. For awhile there was good demand for both wheat and corn, but sentiment in other markets precipitated a selling movement, which knocked the corners off all speculative values.

Dun's report on exports of breadstuffs to many of the leading ports of the world. The showing was surprising even to many of the bears, who believed that the movement of grain from foreign ports had been better than for some time. The wheat export was up and was firm during the first half hour, at the end of which time selling developed the early advance. The close was 1/4c off.

Dec. corn opened 1/4c higher, but closed 1/4c off. The same loss was recorded on the May option.

There was practically no trading in oats. May sold at an advance of 1/4c, but closed 1/4c off.

Produce was easy all around, mainly because receipts were not up to the quality demanded by consumers. Potatoes, apples, pears and plums were in demand and better stock would have brought better prices. Potatoes were slightly higher, and cabbage was firm.

Yesterday was big bull day on the local Stock Exchange. Bank and trust company stocks were in demand on an advancing scale.

Spot cotton was quiet and unchanged.

Live stock prices were higher for top grades and firm for ordinary receipts.

Discount rates ruled between 5 and 6 per cent.

ALL GRAINS DECLINED AFTER EARLY ADVANCE.

LATE BEARISH NEWS RULED THE LOCAL MARKET.

Heavy Selling on Other Exchanges Was Responsible for a Rush to Realize.

For awhile yesterday it appeared that grain values would strike the upward path, but subsequent selling overruled the calculations of the bears. The most potent influence came from outside markets, where the statistical review of the export trade for the month, as set forth by Dun's Review, showed that the exports of breadstuffs for the month of August were in the aggregate $3,855,000, as compared with $3,850,000 for the month of July. Exports of provisions for the month were $1,270,000, against $1,250,000 for July. The most striking feature of the increase in exports of breadstuffs was the increase in exports of wheat and wheat flour. The shipments of wheat for the month aggregated $1,150,000, as compared with $1,100,000 for July. The most striking feature of the increase in exports of wheat and wheat flour was the increase in exports of wheat. WHEAT SUPPLY VISIBLY INCREASED.

CONDITION THAT CAUSED A SLUMP IN CEREAL MARKET.

Wheat Closed Lower and Frost Reports Were Not Enough to Sustain Corn Prices.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Conditions were again bearish on the Board of Trade today, and Dec. wheat closed a dull day 1/4c lower; Dec. corn 1/4c lower and Dec. oats 1/4c lower. Provisions closed unchanged to 1/4c lower.

Wheat. Wheat lacked any supporting influence from corn and on reports of heavy receipts, especially in the Northwest, and on Bradstreet's report of a heavily increased movement of wheat from the Northwest to the East. Dec. wheat closed 1/4c lower, to 1/4c lower. On early coverings Dec. wheat closed 1/4c lower, to 1/4c lower.

Corn. Corn opened rather firm on a small Liverpool advance, Dec. a shade lower to a shade higher, but the market was not firm. On early coverings Dec. corn closed 1/4c lower, to 1/4c lower.

Oats. Oats had a dull market. Dec. opened a shade higher at 35c and influenced by the depression of other grains, but closed lower. On early coverings Dec. oats closed 1/4c lower, to 1/4c lower.

Provisions. Provisions were quiet and lower at the close. On early coverings Dec. provisions closed 1/4c lower, to 1/4c lower.

Receipts and Shipments. Receipts of wheat at St. Louis were 1,150,000 bushels; shipments were 1,100,000 bushels.
